Growth came from subscriptions, not discounts.

Direct orders by month

September alone beat last year's best quarter.

How an order travels

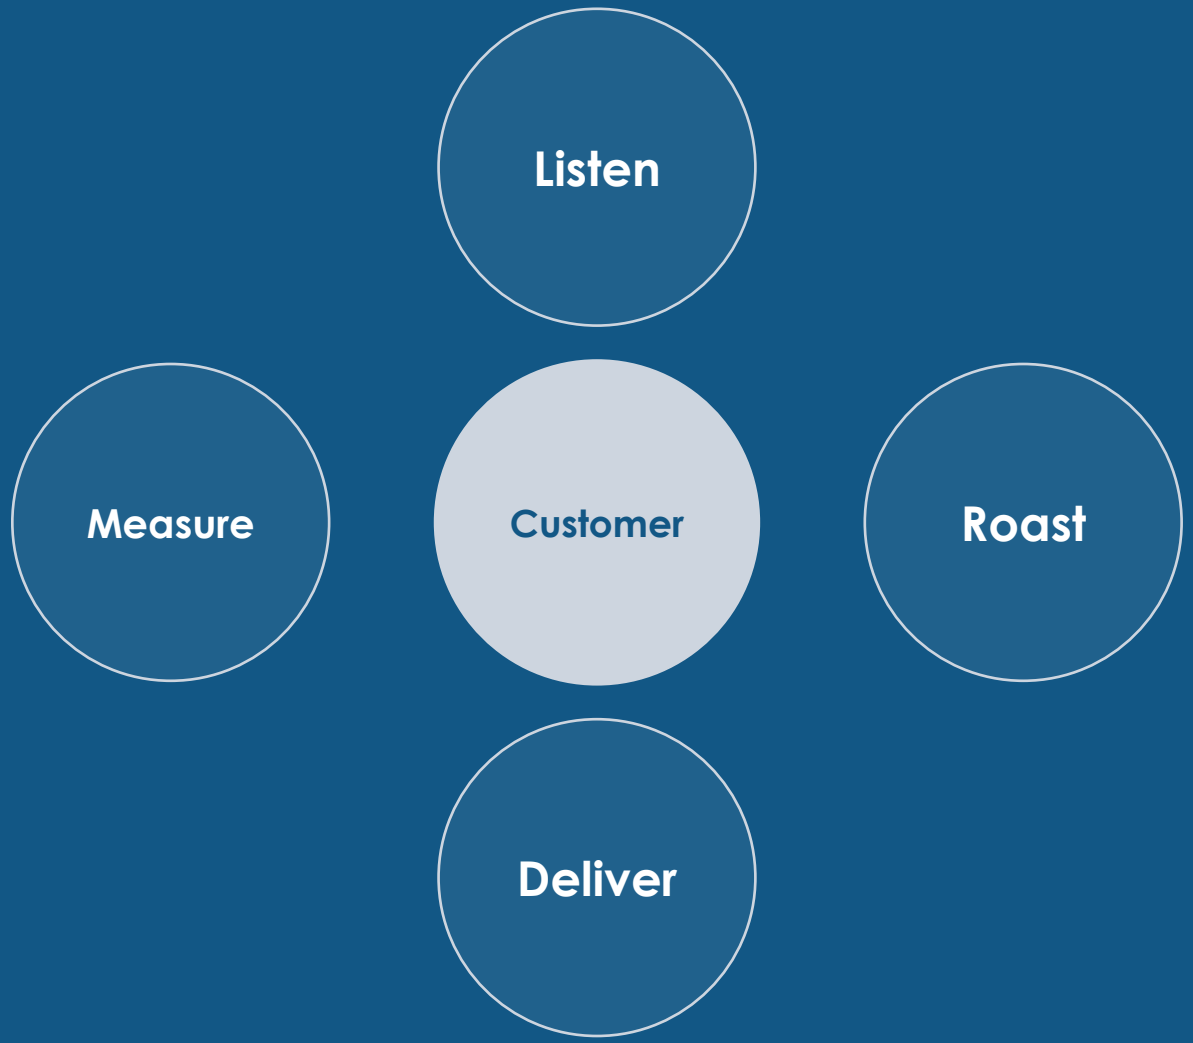

Why customers stay

- Roasted within 48 hours of every order
- Flexible subscriptions, pause any time
- Solar roof covers 40% of our energy

Our improvement loop

Subscriptions vs one-off orders

Subscriptions

- Predictable roasting volume
- Higher lifetime value
- Lower acquisition cost

One-off orders

- Seasonal spikes
- Discount-driven
- Harder to forecast

The coffee arrives faster than my old café could brew it.
